David Settle Joins CCT Venues as Manager for New Conference Centre

Conference and training venue specialists, CCT Venues, has recruited David Settle as the venue manager for the company's new conference, meeting and training centre in Canary Wharf, London.

The centre officially opened on July 10 and David is in overall charge of the waterfront venue, which has 14 high-specification conference and training rooms, and a maximum capacity of 750 delegates.

He will be responsible for the day-to-day running of the centre including the Terrace restaurant, overseeing and planning events, venue development, and client and staff management.

David has been involved in hotel, resort and event management in the UK and overseas for over 20 years, and before joining CCT Venues he ran his own event and corporate hospitality business.

CCT Venues-Canary Wharf is the third London training and conference centre CCT Venues has opened in just over three years.
